

SUICIDE FOUND BY BEACH PATROL

W. V. Maroney, of the Raleigh Club, Shoots Himself to Death.

ANTI-ADMINISTRATION LEAGUE

The Negroes of Norfolk County to Turn On Alvah Martin.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., September 22.—W. V. Maroney, one of the proprietors of the Raleigh Club at Virginia Beach, committed suicide this morning between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock on the beach below the pavilion by shooting himself in the head with a .38-caliber revolver.

Six o'clock this morning W. B. Rudolph, the owner of the Raleigh building, tried to communicate by telephone with L. E. Blondel, president of the Eagles, of which order the deceased was a member, to inform him of the suicide, but Mr. Blondel could not be found. It was reported that he was attending another member of the Eagles, who was ill. The remains of the suicide were accompanied to the city by Mr. Rudolph and Wallace Marshall, an employee of the club. What the cause was of Mr. Maroney's death his life is not definitely known, but it was stated by his friends that he had been drinking heavily for the past several days, and it was thought that despondency, brought on by this, influenced him to commit the deed. He was forty years old and leaves a widow and a son who reside on Virginia Street. His body was found by Captain Herrick, of the Beach life-saving station, about 2 A. M., while he was walking along the beach. The remains were removed by the club house men to the pavilion, where they were viewed by the coroner, Dr. Princess Anne county. The only verdict that could be reached was that the deceased came to his death by a pistol shot wound penetrating the ear, caused by his own hand. The revolver was found beside the dead man.

DR. OWEN RESIGNS.

The Rev. Dr. A. E. Owen, for many years pastor of churches in Norfolk, Portsmouth, and a successful evangelist, has announced his intention of resigning the pastorate of the South Street Baptist Church, giving as his reason therefor a lack of harmony in the congregation.

Several months ago he resigned the pastorate, but was re-elected by a narrow majority. His present term as pastor expires on the 29th of the present month. He says that he could be elected again, but by a partisan vote, and he resigns that the division in the congregation, which is one of the largest Baptist congregations in Tidewater Virginia, may be sealed.

NEGROES TURN ON MARTIN.

The negroes living in Norfolk county, in the suburbs of Portsmouth, have organized the Anti-Administration League, for the purpose of fighting the Alvin Martin Republican-Fusion regime. The Fusionists, dominated by Martin, have for long controlled the county by means of the negro vote, and for many of the negroes to do likewise. J. S. Collins, instructor of manual training in the Portsmouth Industrial School, is president of the league.

Many negroes are registered in Norfolk county, regardless of the new registration laws.

REPUBLICANS SPEAK IN GREENSVILLE

State Senator Harman and W. S. Poage Make Addresses.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

EMPORIA, VA., Sept. 22.—The Republican campaign was inaugurated in Greenville county last night, when State Senator J. N. Harman, of Tazewell county, and W. S. Poage, of Wytheville, addressed the voters of this community.

About one hundred people were present and listened to the doctrines of Republican rule as expounded by these speakers.

Mr. Harman led off in a statistical speech of one hour, and was followed by his colleague in a running talk covering one and one-half hours.

As Senator Harman is a candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, his theme in the main was upon the school question, especially attempting to impress upon his hearers that if the State Republicans were successful in November the school children of the Commonwealth would be furnished free books.

His plan for securing an appropriation for this item of reform was to weed out from the Democratic office holders succulent amount of men now a State burden. Books could be furnished every child in the State for a sum not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

His remarks relative to Southall was anything but complimentary.

Attorney Poage, like the Senator from Tazewell, scored Democrat and Democratic principles. Poage is an impressive speaker, and appears to be in earnest. He took occasion to say that his father fought for the Confederacy and gave his life for it, yet he was a Republican now, stop and branch.

Mr. Poage's success as an attorney dates back to the time he defended Mr. Riddick, of Brunswick county, the slayer of Dr. Temple.

At the conclusion of the speaking Capt. Frank Jarrett, of Sussex county, announced his candidacy for the Legislature.

His opponent, Mr. Person, the Democratic nominee, is from Sussex, and only received a majority over the Greenville candidate, Mr. Field. Mr. Jarrett is running as an independent, "which may be taken cum grano sals by the Democrats of the two counties." Is the way one Democrat put it last night.

THE EQUITY LIFE

QUITS BUSINESS

The Last of Four Assessments

Companies Started in Staunton.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., September 22.—The Equity Life Association, of this place, announced this morning its ability to no longer continue business, and had paid out all its assets to its policyholders. This information was communicated to each policyholder at the time by letter. It has been intimated that the cause of the company's failure was due to the numerous recent death losses and the complications in the Equitable Life, of New York, and the Royal Arcanum. It is understood that the company has realized on all its assets and has disbursed all the money in its hands.

Your correspondent understands that the officers of the company are doing the best they can to protect their members, and any premiums received are promptly returned. The Equity is the last of four insurance companies organized in Staunton, all of which did business on some form of assessment insurance. The Equity Life Insurance Association was an active insurance company for more than seventeen years, and except for unusually heavy death losses and a large shrinkage in the premium receipts, owing to the insurance situation in the country generally, the company might have lived many years longer.

It is believed locally that the officers of the company have done all in their power to avert this misfortune, but it seems that the condition of their control have caused a suspension of business.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEESBURG, VA., September 22.—The policyholders of the Equity Life Insurance company, of Leesburg, Va., living in Loudoun, Fauquier and adjacent counties have received circular letters from the secretary of the company, a Mr. Funkhouser, announcing that the company had failed and was compelled to retire from business, owing to the recent trouble in the Equitable Life, of New York, and the Royal Arcanum.

The company assigns no other reasons, gives no statement of its affairs and makes no mention of the distribution of its assets.

This company carried many policies in this and adjoining counties, and the individual losses will range from $500 to $1,500. The policyholders contemplate concerted investigation of the company's transactions, and have employed counsel to enter civil action, if found possible, against the officials of the company for restitution of funds received by the company with knowledge of its insolvency.

Criminal proceedings will be begun if the facts warrant this course.

MERCHANT SHOWS SMALL DISCRETION

Refused to Enlighten Police Justice, Saying "Shakespeare Never Repeats."

JUDGE SENT HIM TO JAIL

And is Going to Keep Him There Ten Days—The New Turnpike.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., September 22.—The North Carolina State School for the Blind has opened, with 200 pupils for the first day, fifty more than ever attended the first day since the institution began, sixty years ago. During the vacation period over $5,000 has been expended in improvements. It is estimated that the attendance will reach 275.

The Raleigh Merchants' Association has decided to refund to all visitors to the State Fair in October, who spend as much as $50 with any or all of the members of the association, their railroad fare. They will also open the association rooms as headquarters for fair visitors and provide for taking care of packages and parcels.

RAILED FOR CONTEMPT.

R. W. Richardson, a well known young merchant of this city, was sent to jail for ten days for contempt yesterday by Police Justice Badger. Richardson was on the stand being examined by the justice regarding a case on trial. He had made a statement to Justice Badger and the Court understood him, and asked over again what he had said. "Shakespeare never repeats," was the response the witness made. The justice promptly directed that the young merchant be committed to jail for ten days for contempt, and no amount of intercession could change the sentence.

The two tobacco warehouses in Raleigh are doing a good business, the sales yesterday having amounted to more than 20,000 pounds and the prices ranged from $6 to $35 per hundred pounds.

The directors of the State penitentiary, at Raleigh, are holding a joint session here next Thursday for the purpose of considering matters pertaining to the completion of the Wilkesboro-Jefferson turnpike, which is now within three miles of the summit of the Blue Ridge and eight miles to Jefferson.

The work thus far the State has furnished the convicts and taken stock as compensation. Cash or material, etc., has heretofore been raised by the sale of stock to people of the section traversed. Now they say no more stock can be sold, and $200,000 more is needed to finish the road, and the plan is for the State to take this additional stock and insure the completion of the road.

The directors of the penitentiary wish the approval of the Council of State before undertaking to do this.

After a hard fight made against him, Mr. Mullin has been re-elected chief of police of Raleigh, their being only one vote against him at the meeting of the Aldermen last night. He is one of the brightest and best known Masons in the State.
